CASE: Center for Autism Support and Education

A resource for parents, foster parents, therapists, respite workers, recreation program staff and anyone else who lives or works with individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD).

About CASE: Center for Autism Support and Education

CASE provides information, training and support for families of individuals who have Autism Spectrum

Disorder (ASD) and the professionals who work with them. CASE will enable family support staff and community recreation providers to better serve families. CASE will also support parents in effectively advocating for their children.

CASE provides a variety of specialized workshops to help families and professionals better understand ASD and the behaviors and characteristics that come with it. CASE will always seek to provide workshop topics that are meaningful and relevant to both families and providers.

CASE has been designed to enable families to become more equal partners with professionals. When families and professionals are equal partners, the individual with ASD will have an increased opportunity to be more successful in all areas of their life.

Possible Workshop Topics*

- An Overview of Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD)
- Resolving Behavior Challenges
- Communication Strategies for Individuals with ASD
- What's New in Research of ASD: Being an Informed Consumer
- Social Intervention Strategies for Home and School
- Transitioning into Adulthood: The Road to Independence
- Siblings of Children with Autism
- Treatment Options for Individuals with ASD
- Co-Occurring Diagnosis with ASD
- Autism Spectrum Disorders and Medications
- A Discussion with the Experts

**Note: Workshop topics are subject to change based on assessed needs in the community. Please contact CASE if you have ideas for additional workshop topics.*

Information & Referral Services

CASE also offers an Information and Referral service for families and caregivers. This service links people with the information and resources they are looking for including: more about about ASD, community resources, services available and concerns about school. Call (716) 332-4175 to reach our Information & Referral Specialist.

Support Group for Parents of Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD)

The support group provides a welcoming environment for parents and other caregivers of children with autism spectrum disorders to meet, share experiences, ask questions and receive support.

The group meets monthly and light refreshments are served. Moderators for the group are experienced professionals in the field who have worked with individuals having ASD.

Space is limited so reservations are appreciated. Call (716) 878-7600 to reserve your spot. If you are interested in participating but have transportation or other barriers that might prevent you from doing so, please let us know.
